L8: Entry 2 of 2   File: USPT   Jul 12, 2005

DOCUMENT-IDENTIFIER: US 6917962 B1
TITLE: Web-based groupware system

Application Filing Date (1): 20000609

Brief Summary Text (3): Recently, the need for collaborative computing environments has been receiving increasing attention. People are finding that it is more and more important to share information and work together to meet common goals. With increasing specialization in the marketplace, there is frequent need to work together with people from different offices, different organizations and even different countries to satisfy the requirements of a particular project or goal. Managing collaborative initiatives of this type is not a simple matter.

Detailed Description Text (52):
The advisor navigates to a web site provided by the system and logs in. Upon logging in, the advisor is presented with a web page. Referring to FIG. 5, a block drawing representing the web page is illustrated generally by the numeral 500. The web page is displayed in a frames format, wherein different portions of a screen contain different web pages. The screen is divided into a menu frame 502, an options frame 504, a main frame 506, and a logo frame 508. The menu frame 502 provides the advisor with a plurality of different information screens. The options frame provides the advisor with further options and provides space for advertising, a stock ticker, and the like. The main frame is used to present information to the user. The logo frame 508 typically includes the logo of the brokerage for which the advisor works.

Detailed Description Text (60):
Similar to the advisor, the client navigates to a web site provided by the system and logs in. Upon logging in, the client is presented with a web page. Referring to FIG. 6, a block drawing representing the web page is illustrated generally by the numeral 600. The web page is displayed in a frames format, wherein different portions of a screen contain different web pages. The screen is divided into a menu frame 602, in options frame 604, a main frame 606, and a logo frame 608. The menu frame 602 provides the client with a plurality of different information screens.
The options frame provides the client with further options and provides space for advertising, a stock ticker, and the like. The main frame is used to present information to the client. The logo frame 508 typically includes the logo of the brokerage providing the service to the client.
